

AN OPEN DOOR TO ART

Free Student Admission to the Boise Art Museum

August 21, 2006 – August 21, 2007

Welcome Reception for Students, Faculty and Staff

October 3, 2006, 5:00 – 8:00 p.m.

Boise Art Museum and Boise State University are partnering to offer free Museum admission to BSU students. Currently enrolled Boise State students who present valid student ID cards will be admitted to BAM free of charge during regular operating hours from August 21, 2006 – August 21, 2007. In addition, students, faculty and staff are invited to a welcome reception at BAM on Tuesday, October 3, 2006 at 5:00 p.m.

Group or class visits must be arranged at least two weeks in advance by contacting BAM's Education Department at 345-8330 ext. 36.

(The free admission benefit is for students only, and does not extend to BSU faculty or staff. However, faculty and staff members accompanying pre-scheduled student groups will be admitted free of charge. Students and faculty are required to present ID cards.)

For only $15 annually, join BAM at the student level with additional benefits including:

- Free admission to BAM
- 10% discount on merchandise in The Museum Store
- Invitations to special events and exhibition previews
- Quarterly Newsletter
- Special discounts on adult and children's art classes
- $5 gift certificate from The Museum Store
- Free or reduced admission to lectures and gallery talks

(For faculty, there are special membership rates for full-time educators.)

For more information about BAM membership, programs and exhibitions, visit the website at www.boiseartmuseum.org

Sponsored by the Division of Student Affairs

